

REPORT ON PRELIM EXAM

Ph.D. in Linguistics

This form is to be used to report the outcome of the committee review of a PRELIMINARY EXAM paper (also known as QP1) for the Ph.D. degree. A passing score is a prerequisite for the qualifying exam for Ph.D. students. An M.A. can be awarded provided that all other requirements have been met and the forms for advancement to candidacy and completion of the M.A. are submitted and approved.

Student Name: _____

UC Davis email address: _____

PART ONE (only if applicable)

The above-named student has satisfied this requirement with a score of PASS-PHD.

Committee

Chair:

Signature email address date

Committee

Member:

Signature email address date

Committee

Member:

Signature email address date

PART TWO (only if applicable)

Only in case of an outcome other than PASS-PHD, the chair of the committee must specify the outcome PASS-MA or NOT PASS, the vote, and explain and justify the recommendation(s) or conditions (if any) concerning resubmission.

Committee

Chair:

Signature email address date